EXTENDED CLEARWAYS ON MAJOR ROADS – MONDAY 29 JANUARY, 2018

To whom it may concern,

Due to planned industrial action, there will not be any trains operating on the Sydney Trains network on Monday 29 January and all train stations will be closed.

To accommodate the increased number of buses that will be operating on key corridors, and the general increase in vehicle traffic expected, the duration of existing clearways will be extended.

Clearways usually only in effect during the morning and afternoon peak periods on major roads across Sydney will be extended to be effective from 6am through until 7pm on Monday 29 January.

Clearways will be in effect from 6am to 7pm on the roads listed below and affect both sides of the road unless otherwise specified:

Airport to South East:
• O’Riordan Street southbound between Elizabeth Street, Waterloo and Qantas Drive, Mascot.

Eastern Suburbs:
• New South Head Road eastbound between Bayswater Road, Edgecliff and Victoria Road, Double Bay.

Inner West:
• Canterbury Road between Fairford Road, Bankstown and New Canterbury Road, Dulwich Hill.
• Hume Highway between Centenary Drive, Strathfield and Parramatta Road, Ashfield.
• King Georges Road between Hume Highway, Greenacre and Princes Highway, Blakehurst.
• New Canterbury Road between Canterbury Road and Stanmore Road, Stanmore.
• Parramatta Road between Wattle Street, Ashfield and Lee Street, Sydney.
• Princes Highway between Rocky Point Road, Kogarah and Sydney Park Road, Newtown.
• Stanmore Road between New Canterbury Road, Petersham and Enmore Road, Enmore.

North Shore:
• Pacific Highway between M1 Pacific Motorway, Wahroonga and Arthur Street, North Sydney.

Northern Suburbs:
• Victoria Road between Devlin Street, Ryde and The Crescent, Rozelle.

Southern Suburbs:
• Rocky Point Road between Sandringham Street, Sans Souci and Princes Highway, Kogarah.
• The Grand Parade and General Holmes Drive between Sandringham Street, Dolls Point and M5 East Motorway, Kyeemagh.
• West Botany Street between President Avenue, Kogarah and Princes Highway, Arncliffe.
• Wickham Street between Princes Highway and West Botany Street, Arncliffe.

Motorists are advised to check signs carefully as vehicles left in sign-posted clearways will be towed and a fee may apply.

To find the location of a towed vehicle, call the Traffic Information Line on 132 701.

The full details and locations of these clearways can be found online at livetraffic.com.