2022 CITIZEN OF THE YEAR GUIDELINES AND CRITERIA

Each year Strathfield residents are invited to nominate fellow citizens for the NSW Local Citizen of the Year Awards in conjunction with annual Australia Day celebrations. The awards aim to recognise outstanding achievement during the past year and/or contribution to the local community and environment over a number of years.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Strathfield Citizen of the Year

To be eligible, the person must be 26 years or older on 26 January 2022.

Strathfield Young Citizen of the Year

To be eligible, the person must be 16 - 25 years on 26 January 2022.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- Nominees must be Australian citizens and residents of the Strathfield Council area at the time of nomination, although particularly outstanding and significant contributions to the municipality by a non-resident will be considered if received.
- Unsuccessful nominees may be re-nominated in subsequent years.
- Self nominations will not be accepted.
- Awards will not be granted posthumously.
- Sitting state and federal politicians and current vice-regal officers are not eligible. Consideration of retired politicians and officers would be for work in addition to their official duties.
- A person cannot receive a second award in the same Awards category, but can be considered for recognition in a separate category in following years eg. Young Citizen of the Year and then Citizen of the Year.
- The minimum age for the Local Citizen of the Year Awards is 16 years on 26 January 2022.
- Nominations will remain active for two years i.e. the year they are nominated and the following year.
- All nominees will be considered for the Citizen of the Year Award.
- Nominees aged 16 to 25 years on 26 January 2022 will also be considered for the Young Citizen of the Year Award.

HOW TO NOMINATE

To nominate, please complete the attached nomination form. The nomination should detail the nature, duration and impact of the nominee's contribution to the Strathfield community.

JUDGING CRITERIA

- Each nominee will be assessed in terms of whether contribution was:
 - Outstanding (i.e. notable above expectation)
 - Voluntary (i.e. no direct or indirect monetary or material gain)
 - Beneficial to the community and/or environment (i.e. the Strathfield Municipality) and/or
 - Of significant personal effort (i.e. concentrated or sustained over time).

OTHER CRITERIA

- The number of hours of work over and above normal employment duties.
- The benefit to the community from the nominee's service or contribution.
- Other outstanding achievements by the nominee.
- Other recognition of the nominee's contribution or work, including publicity.
- Whether the nominee worked as part of a team and their role within the team.
- Whether the nominee has had assistance from Council, government or other grants.
- Whether the nominee has had to overcome any particular difficulties or hurdles.
- Who has benefited most from the work of the nominee.
- Any significant personal effort (i.e. concentrated or sustained over time) or achievement.
- Any outstanding efforts or contributions to the community, region or state.

In the event of two or more equally satisfying the above criteria, the Committee has the option of giving preference to the nominee who has received less public recognition.

Nominations must be received by Friday 14 January 2022.

PRESENTATION

The awards will be presented on Australia Day, 26 January 2022 at Strathfield Town Hall.

The selection of recipients will reflect the nominations received and information available to the committee at the time. Strathfield Council reserves the right to withdraw an award if further information or the recipient's conduct draws the Local Citizen of the Year Awards into disrepute.
