3. Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 and Government Information (Public Access) Regulation 2010

In accordance with the above Act and Regulation, development applications and associated documents is prescribed as 'open access' information with the exception of:

- (a) the plans and specifications for any residential parts of a proposed building, other than plans that merely show its height and its external configuration in relation to the site on which it is proposed to be erected, or
- (b) commercial information, if the information would be likely to prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied it or to reveal a trade secret.

Strathfield Council is required to make these documents available to the public for purposes of viewing or copying, which can include publication on Council's website at www.strathfield.nsw.gov.au

4. Reportable Political Donations

Under section 147(4) of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 ('the Act') a person who makes a relevant planning application to a council is required to disclose the following reportable political donations and gifts (if any) made by any person with a financial interest in the application within the period commencing 2 years before the application is made and ending when the application is determined:

- 1. all reportable political donations made to any local councillor of that council
- 2. all gifts made to any local councillor or employee of that council.

Further information and disclosure forms are available from Council's website www.strathfield.nsw.gov.au or the NSW Department of Planning website at www.planning.nsw.gov.au/planning_reforms/donations.asp.

5. Public Information

The information provided on this application is considered to be public information

Copyright Notice: The Applicant is advised that Council may make copies (including electronic copies) of the development application and accompanying documents for the purpose of complying with its obligations under the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, the Local Government Act 1993 and Council's Notification Policy. In addition, the Council may make such further copies as, in its opinion, are necessary to facilitate a thorough consideration of the development application by Council and public participation in the development assessment process. This will include making copies of the advertised plans, supporting documentation and the determination available on Council's website to be viewed or printed out by members of the public. The Applicant is responsible for obtaining all copyright licences necessary from the copyright owners for this purpose.
